HAVE A LOOK

AT OUR SILVER LEVER WATCH at Rs. 35 before buying, and you will give it the preference before any other.

The Watch as it is now, is the result of 20 years experience in the Indian watch trade, and we guarantee it to be the most perfect watch ever offered to the public for such a small outlay.

Being the manufacturers ourselves, the buyer obtains the watch from first hand. This explains its cheapness.

The Watches are of medium size in heavy engine turned silver cases, either hunting or half hunting. Guarantee 3 years.

To be obtained only direct from our firms at Bombay, Calcutta, and Secunderabad.

GENUINE WHISKY

THE following complete analysis of our celebrated GLENLIVET SCOTCH WHISKY has been just received; it emphatically confirms and places beyond a doubt all that has been said respecting the genuineness, purity, and quality of our well-known brand; the fact of our Whisky being free from Sherry, etc., should be specially noted, as at the present time this adulteration is extremely prevalent.

From DR. WALLACE,

Public Analyst to the City of Glasgow.

City Analyst's Laboratory, Glasgow, February 1885.

I have made a careful chemical analysis and examination of a sample of Glenlivet Scotch Whisky, received on the 30th ult., from Messrs. Treacher and Co., Bombay, and have found it to be a pure Scotch Whisky, of excellent flavour, sufficiently matured, and perfectly free from Sherry Wine and other additions, which are frequently made to Whisky, in order to give it a fictitious appearance of age or to conceal inferiority of quality.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 28.

THE commercial telegrams from London of yesterday, with the exception of a recovery of ¼ in Consols, afford no indication of any change in the feeling regarding politics, but the political messages received to-day have been interpreted in the Bazaar as less in favour of peace. Why they should be so read, no one is prepared to say very definitely, but on the strength of them Government Paper has weakned down again this afternoon, and Wheat is firmer.

The Mincing-lane markets yesterday were without alteration, except for a partial decline of 3d. to 6d. per quarter in Calcutta Linseed.

Cotton in Liverpool closed quiet, the estimate of the day's sales being 7,000 bales, including 800 Surats. Spot prices were unchanged, but in Americans to arrive a further decline of 1-64d. was quoted. In New York quotations were the same, both for ready Cotton and futures, 10 13-16 and 10-97 cents per lb. respectively.

The Cotton market here has again been dull and depressed. Of Broach there have been sellers of Good at Rs. 216, and Fully Good at Rs. 218, and Bhownuggurs are offering very freely on the basis of Rs. 198 for Good, May delivery; but buyers hold aloof, being unable to do business at home.

WHEAT meets but a limited inquiry for export, and during the earlier part of the day sellers seemed rather inclined to give way slightly. In the afternoon, however, they were very firm, and asked in some cases ½ anna per cwt. more.

SEEDS are quiet at unaltered prices.

FREIGHTS have not developed any new feature, but if anything we should call the market a trifle quieter in tone. We still give current quotations as follows :—

	Ready.	Forward.
Liverpool	27s. 6d.	27s. 6d.
Open Charter	28s. 6d. to 30s.	28s. 9d. to 30s.
Havre	28s. 9d. to 30s.	28s. 9d. to 30s.
Antwerp	28s. 9d.	28s. 9d.
Marseilles	.....	35s.
Trieste-Venice ..	35s.	35s. to 37s. 6d.

IMPORTS are very dull all round. For goods the market rather tends easier. Coals are quiet, and we have not heard of any business whatever.

EXCHANGE continues to tend upwards, not so much from the amount of business doing as the aspect of the Money Market. If Government requirements are maintained, as seems likely to be the case, there will be considerable pressure for funds during the few remaining weeks of the season; and apprehending this, the banks are mostly much more willing sellers than buyers of bills. We opened to an advance of 1-32d. all round, but as the day wore on bank paper was offered at a further rise of 1-32d., making closing quotations :—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 7 9-32d.	per Rupee.
Do. Telegraphic	1s. 7 3-16d.	"
Do three months' sight..	1s. 7 13-32d.	"
Credits " "	1 7/	"
Francs " "	2 06 to 2 07.	"

GOVERNMENT PAPER had rather a steadier appearance to begin with, and business was done in Fours up to Rs. 93 1-16. Later the tone became weaker, and at the close there were sellers at Rs. 92¾. Fours-and-a-half are still quoted nominally at Rs. 97.

SHARES are dull, and in the case of Spinning and Weaving Mills a shade easier. Bombay-Burmah Trading Co. are Rs. 25 lower. Press shares are quiet. New Indians are quoted at Rs. 150. Cash Bazaar, after touching Rs. 30, are quoted at Rs. 34.

THE BOSPHORE EGYPTIEN AFFAIR.

LONDON, APRIL 27.

Lord Edmund Fitzmaurice (Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs), replying to a question in the Commons this evening, said that the British Protectorate in Egypt was on the point of concluding arrangements with the Bosphore Egyptien which would be satisfactory alike to England, France, and Egypt.

THE PENJDEH AFFAIR.

Mr. Gladstone, in reply to a question, said that Sir Peter Lumsden had telegraphed that Mr. Condie Stephen had started for London with maps and details regarding Penjdeh.

IMPORTANT STATEMENT BY THE PREMIER.

Mr. Gladstone introduced the motion for a vote of credit of eleven millions sterling on account of special preparations, and in doing so declared that though not at war an actual or approximate vote was necessary in view of our obligations to the Amir Abdul Rahman, and that England must see right done to the Afghans. The Commons agreed to the motion without a division and without discussion.

THE ENGLISH PRESS ON THE SITUATION.

LONDON, APRIL 28.

The press, in discussing the situation, generally approve of Mr. Gladstone's firmness in his speech last night when introducing the motion for a vote of credit, and add that it is indicative that there are but faint hopes of a peaceful settlement of the Anglo-Russian difficulty.

A MEETING of leading native citizens was held at "Mazagon Castle" yesterday afternoon to consider the measures that should be adopted for giving a suitable welcome to His Highness the Gaekwar of Baroda on the occasion of his first visit to Bombay as a native prince. The Hon. Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy, Bart., C.S.I., was called to the chair. Several resolutions were unanimously agreed to. The meeting resolved to welcome His Highness on behalf of the city of Bombay and to give him a suitable reception on his arrival at the Grant-road railway station to-morrow afternoon. An evening party is to be given in His Highness's honour at "Petit Hall," where an address of welcome will be presented to him. A committee of nearly 200 native gentlemen, with power to add to their number, was appointed to carry out the objects of the meeting, with the Hon. Mr. Budrooddin, the Hon. Mr. Telang, Mr. P. M. Mehta, and Mr. Hurkissondas Narotumdas as secretaries to the committee. A subscription list was opened to defray the expenses connected with the reception, each individual subscription not to exceed Rs. 50. The proceedings terminated with a vote of thanks to the chairman.

THE Commander-in-Chief will arrive to-day at 6-30 a.m. A salute of 17 guns will be fired announcing His Excellency's arrival.

A MARINE COURT OF INQUIRY will sit at the Fort Police Court to-day to investigate the circumstances connected with certain damages sustained by the s.s. Newcomen, Captain C. R. Housen. The s.s. Newcomen arrived in harbour on the 15th inst. from London with a general cargo of dynamite, powder, and detonators. While entering the Prince's Dock on Friday, the 17th, she, in avoiding a cargo boat, struck against the northern wharf, and is believed to be much damaged.

SENHOR XAVIER CORDEIRO and Mr. Swayer have been summoned by the Lisbon Government and the Board of Directors of the Marmagoa Railway Company, respectively, to give their opinion on the work of the Marmagoa Railway.

THE youngest son of the Thakore of Palitana has filed a suit in the High Court to recover a sum of two lakhs of rupees from Joosub Hajee Ahmed. In 1878 the Thakore presented absolutely to the plaintiff a sum of four lakhs of rupees; but as the plaintiff was a minor, it was arranged by an agreement dated 16th March, 1878, between the Thakore and the defendant, then his Bombay agent, that the amount of four lakhs should be deposited with the defendant for a period of seven years; that he should pay interest at four annas per cent. per mensem and an annual allowance of Rs. 500; and that on the expiration of the term, when the plaintiff should attain the age of 21 years, it should be at his option either to take back the money or to continue the agreement. In pursuance of it, the defendant received a sum of two lakhs of rupees, and credited it to the plaintiff in an account opened in his books. The period of seven years had now expired, and the plaintiff would attain the age of 21 years on the 4th September next. In 1883 the plaintiff sued the defendant in the High Court to recover the two lakhs of rupees, and obtained a decree in his favour in the court of first instance; but the decree was reversed in appeal, on the ground that the plaintiff's father never intended more than that the plaintiff should have the beneficial interest in the amount; that he reserved to himself the absolute right of disposing of the money; and that the suit was premature, inasmuch as the period of seven years had not then expired. The defendant contended in that suit that the money did not belong to the plaintiff, and that he had no beneficial interest therein. In order to remove all doubt as to the ownership of the sum the plaintiff had now obtained a formal declaration and assignment from his father regarding it. An attachment before judgment has been issued in this suit.

THE Allahabad paper writes:—"We have reason to believe that the original intention of massing 50,000 men on that plateau has been greatly modified during the past fortnight, it having been ascertained that such a large force could not be fed from its base for any length of time, while Peshin and the neighbouring districts can only furnish very few supplies. Such a force would have to move forward to secure food and forage about Kandahar, but in our present arrangement with the Amir prevents such a movement being contemplated for the present. Besides, as we have already noticed, there is a strong opinion against seeking the Russians out at Herat, as the difficulty of placing 50,000 men in line there—and we should have to send that number if we undertook a campaign in Central Asia—would be very great, while if we defeated the Russians we could not follow them up. They would be retreating along their own line, and eating up all the supplies as they fell back, leaving a desert country behind them. If we do not throw an army upon Herat we shall probably exert ourselves elsewhere, but as we could not let Russia overrun the Herat province and Afghan Turkistan without taking some precautions, we might have to throw a strong Division into Kandahar to stimulate the Afghans in their guerilla warfare, and secure a base whence money, arms, and ammunition could be distributed by the Amir's officials. Hence the Government must go on filling Peshin with supplies and completing the transport arrangements in readiness for all emergencies. The Russian line from the Caspian to Herat would be 700 miles in length; we are not bound to strike at the Herat end, even though it may be the nearer to India."

THE tact shown by Colonel Ridgeway under difficult and trying circumstances is highly spoken of. "Not only," says the Pioneer, "did Colonel Ridgeway do his own part of the work, the conducting of the Commission from Quetta to Kuhsan, as well as it could have been done, but he has been no less eminently successful since. There is but one opinion in the Commission as to the way in which he lately maintained himself for so long a time at Penjdeh, averting the collision that otherwise must have occurred weeks earlier. The position was a thoroughly difficult one, with the Saruks on the one side being goaded on by Russian influences to attack the Afghans, and the Afghans eager to fling themselves upon the Russians; but Colonel Ridgeway's tact and firmness conciliated the one and restrained the other; and though at last the collision came, the Russians could not have well confessed themselves more absolutely foiled than when they had to take to the clumsy expedient of a direct offensive, instead of being able themselves to figure as the injured victims of Afghan rage worked up by British hostility."

THE Persian paper Schems publishes the following news-letter from Herat:—"Our city resembles a military camp, to which divisions of troops are continually coming and going. The population lives in forced idleness, because the fears of a Russian army appearing at any moment have caused trade with Persia, Turkistan, and Bokhara to cease altogether. The war is proclaimed in every mosque, and the Imams from the pulpit explain to the people that Believers must pray to remain under the sway of Moslem Princes, and that to be governed by Christians like the Czar would be a misfortune. They remind the people that the Czar is the enemy of the Caliph in Constantinople, and his ardent wish is to turn the Ottoman Empire into a Christian province. The Imams frighten the people by telling them that if the Russians take the city, they will at once build churches and convents, and that from Herats' minarets the Christian cross will shine as from those of Merv."

THE North Fort Glacis, Madras, where some military drafts are encamped, was the scene of some commotion the other day. Three foreigners went into the camp and offered for sale some gold and silver trinkets, and the soldiers, suspecting them to be Russian spies, made them prisoners, and reported the circumstance to their superior officer. As the foreigners were unable to make themselves understood, they were handed over to the police authorities. An inquiry being instituted through the means of an Arabic or Persian interpreter, the men said that they were Arabs and belonged to Jerusalem, that from Jerusalem they went to Australia, thence to Ceylon, Singapore, Negapatam, and Trichinopoly, arriving at Madras to sell the jewellery in their possession. Pending further inquiries the men are detained in custody.

AT Lucknow on Saturday morning the Lieutenant-Governor and Chief Commissioner presented Moulvie Sami-ulla Khan, who has just been appointed Civil Judge of Rae Bareilly, with the decoration of a Companion of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, which has been given him for service in Egypt under Lord Northbrook. The two Judicial Commissioners, the Commissioner, and the principal officers of Government, English and native, in Lucknow, with some of the leading vakeels, and a few talukdars connected with Rae Bareilly, attended at the ceremony.

THE Board of Directors of the East Indian Railway Company at home, in a recent despatch, have declined to accede to the recommendation of the Agency at Calcutta to confirm the provisional storekeeper in his present appointment, although the plan was supported by the Government of India. The Board of Directors are said to have observed that what they want is the appointment of a professional man, who must be a mechanical engineer, and the head of the Stores Department—an officer who should be independent of the Agent. The Board have desired the Agent to obtain the opinion of the Government on the subject.

MANY Anglo-Indians will be painfully interested in learning that Mr. Bartle George Goldsmid, of 3, Draper's Gardens, E. C., is the stock-broker whose defalcations have been the cause of the recent excitement in financial circles. Mr. Goldsmid has been declared a defaulter, and his liabilities are said to be enormous, ranging up to £400,000, but the particulars are not yet known. Owing, however, to grave irregularities, the defaulter is said to have absconded to Spain. It is alleged that, in addition to appropriating the securities of clients for the payment of "differences" in the Stock Exchange, he has for the last two years deposited forged transfers with various companies, so that there is a promise of serious complications. Some of the banks and discount houses will suffer, though, as is the custom, all deny any loss by Goldsmid; and there is a great effort being made to reduce the disgrace to one whose connections are so highly placed and powerful. But it is hopeless to expect that the truth can be concealed, for trust moneys have been tampered with, deeds forged, and clients, relatives, and friends robbed in various ways. It is said that one very near relative has been robbed of £40,000, and that others have lost all they possessed.

MAJOR BROWNE, who is acting in command of the Bengal Presidency Volunteers, is not disposed to allow them to rust, but is taking measures to fit them for any special duties they may be called on to perform should war break out. Thus, the officers and sergeants have been going through a course of instruction in the duty of relieving guard, inspection rounds, and so on, and there is a signalling class under instruction. Recruits are coming into the Regular Corps, as well as joining the Reserve Battalion.

THAT the weather appears to be the hottest Calcutta people have had for years past is shown by the fact that the merchants of Burra-bazaar, who are for the most part natives of the North-West, intend to memorialise the Chamber of Commerce to introduce early hours of business, say from 6 to 11 a. m., during the next two most oppressive months, up to the middle of June. They mean to ask for the co-operation of every English firm as well. The firm of Messrs. Shib Kisto Daw & Co., hard-ware merchants of the city, have taken the lead in the matter.

A CALCUTTA paper hears that a sensational case has been instituted before Mr. J. G. Ritchie, C. S., Joint Magistrate, Serampore, by a zemindar of Telihipara, against Baboo Jogendra Chunder Chatterjee, an honorary magistrate of the Bhuddesur Municipality, for having enticed away his widowed daughter named Punchamoni Debee, aged about 18 years; she was possessed of ornaments valued at Rs. 2,000. Baboo Mohendro Chunder Mitter, M. A., B. L., pleader, Hooghly Judge's Court, appeared for the prosecution, and Baboo Saroda Prosad Ghose, B. L., pleader, Serampore, for the defence. The magistrate, after recording some evidence on behalf of the prosecution, charged the accused under section 403. Bail for Rs. 500 has been taken for his appearance in court on the day of trial.

FOR some years the sugar manufacturing industry in several parts of the Madras Presidency has been declining, and in some districts had almost ceased owing to the want of proper mills to extract the juice from the cane. Some time ago, however, seventy-five of Messrs. Thomson and Mylne's well-known sugar mills were ordered for the Hospett district, and when it was seen how these machines worked, the demand for them soon increased, and the sugar industry, especially in the Bellary district, began to revive. There are many other parts of India where this machine would be equally acceptable.

A RETURN has lately been published of the areas under tea and coffee cultivation in India for the year 1883. Regarding the first, an interesting comparison is made between the figures in the year 1875-76 and those in the year under notice. Thus it appears that in the former year in Assam and Cachar 87,307 acres yielded 20,028,890 lbs. of tea, and in 1883 189,453 acres yielded 52,171,200 lbs. In Bengal 26,378 acres produced 4,941,226 lbs., and in 1883 49,753 acres produced 10,703,139 lbs. In the North-West Provinces 4,363 acres gave 631,182 lbs. as against 7,819 acres giving 1,202,147 lbs. In the Punjab 4,246 acres gave 679,949 lbs. as against 7,964 acres yielding 1,300,010 lbs. In Madras 2,392 acres produced 2,20,070 lbs. as compared with 5,423 acres producing 529,490 lbs.

CARDINAL NEWMAN, though now in the 85th year of his age, has resumed his preaching at the Edgbaston Oratory. On Good Friday he conducted a special service known as the Stations of the Cross, in the course of which he delivered fourteen separate short addresses. He appeared to be in better voice and health than for several years past.

OSMAN BEY, the favourite Chamberlain of the Sultan, followed an Ottoman practice of choosing a mechanical trade in early youth, as the sultans do. The trade Osman Bey took up was that of a printer, and he acquired such a liking for it that it became a favourite amusement even during his court career. With the view of encouraging the printing of Turkish works, he set up at great cost a large printing-office, with the best machinery, and employing two hundred men. He is now devoting a considerable sum to a great paper mill, and as his attendance on the Sultan no longer allows him to give adequate time, he has turned over the management of the whole concern to his grandson, Jeyad Beys, who shares his tastes.

RAB AND ITS VIRTUES.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—In your issue of the 24th, "Viator" suggests that I should undertake a chemical analysis of burnt leaves to ascertain their manurial value. He, like the gentlemen who lately waited on H. E. the Governor, appears to believe that "rab" is simply and solely a method of manuring the seed beds for rice and nachni. If those who, unlike "Viator," do not consider rab a "superstition possessing very little virtue," take their stand on this ground alone, their defence for the practice would be easily met by the retort, "If rab is only a manure why should the materials be burned? Burning must dissipate a large proportion of valuable manurial constituents." There are no doubt other and perhaps more important results than would come from the manure applied unburnt. The suggested analysis would throw very little light, if any, on the rab question. I am conducting experiments designed to gauge the merits of rab, but I need not wait to assert that the Thana ryot is a better farmer than "Viator" thinks, and that his rab is the outcome of as much intelligence as the practice referred to in Broach and Surat, which, by the way, I have not seen.

"Viator" is alarmed at the prospective decrease in the rainfall of the Poona district, which he holds must be the result of the denudation of the hill slopes, and his alarm is perhaps well founded; but a decrease in the rainfall of Thana can hardly be looked on with like alarm. I believe that the heavy rainfall is the reason why rab is necessary. It is at all events confined to tracts of heavy rainfall. If forests so absolutely control the rainfall, it might with plausibility be urged—not that I urge it—that the remedy for rab in the Thana districts is the denudation of the western slopes.—I have, &c.

THE GRIEVANCES OF NATIVE ENGINE DRIVERS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—I have read "Babajee Crushnathjee's" letter in your issue of the 22nd inst., headed "Grievances of Native Engine Drivers." What those grievances are he does not explain, unless it be that he tries to find fault with the late classification introduced by the railway authorities. All that I can make out from the manner in which the letter is worded is that he cannot understand why the officials did not undertake to reply to his former letter. He complains about "the arbitrary and absolute action of the locomotive officials, which has created a widespread discontent," but instead of representing the cause of these alleged grievances to the proper authorities, and seeking redress in proper quarters, he rushes off into print. What he tries exactly to aim at I fail to see, and I think perhaps is the reason why the so-called officials have not thought it right or justifiable to take notice of the letter.

In one thing, however, he is very explicit. He says that he can point out a score of instances in which the grievances have been booked as defaulters. This I do not doubt. But does this go to prove that the natives are better men as engine drivers, or that they perform their work with greater exactitude and punctuality than the Europeans who have taught them? Certainly not! If the Europeans' names are entered oftener in the defaulters' book than those of the natives, the public should not wonder at it, especially when we know how the Traffic Department is organized, exclusively of natives. The public will perhaps ask, what has the Traffic Department got to do with the Locomotive Department? I can answer that it has a great deal to do. A European driver in charge of a train has to deal with native station masters, native assistants and deputies, native guards, native pointsmen, native firemen, and perhaps native firemen and augwalla. If anything goes wrong with him, who is there to sympathize with him or hide his fault? No one! He does not know the native mind. English is to him "Hog sahebjee." And even if he did his spirit would not allow him to stoop to those whom he naturally considers as beneath himself. Such is not the case with the natives, and this is one reason why I prefer the Parsees. If anything goes wrong with thim, they find a number of their caste-fellows to sympathize with as well as help them. One "shet sahebjee" from him will go to cover his numerous faults, and a reciprocation may walk from either side will make the matter "all right."

But where this wholesale recruitment of natives for the most important appointments on this part's culars will lead to is more than I can say. It was the practice on the G. I. P. Railway only to employ Europeans, Eurasians, and a very few of the respectable East Indians. East Indians I mean the so-called Bombay Portuguese, whose parents belong to British India proper, and they must not be confounded with the Goanese, of whom the B. B. and C. I. Railway seem so fond of, so long as there are few complaints, and the line, I must say, worked very smoothly. But now, taking example from the sister line, they have also commenced to employ Hindoos, and I have often seen a number of them were exclusively employed, but not to such an extent. This is very much to be regretted, as it has gone to throw out of employ a number of the communities who have greater claim on the Railway Administration than the Parsees, Hindus, Mahomedans, and so-called Goanese. I trust this will attract the notice of the authorities, like Prior Beauchamp, Mr. Jackson, Mr. Lowder, and Mr. Duxbury, and hope that they will soon make a thorough investigation into the alleged grievances, and give "Babajee Crushnathjee" and his fellow creatures the justice they so eagerly seek, and the good treatment they deserve.

It is useless for them to talk about their being just as good men as the Europeans. They know better themselves what they are able to do. The fact that when anything goes wrong with their engine they have to run to their European drivers, under whom they have worked previously as firemen, is the best answer to such allegations.

This will do for the present. I wish to see what "Babajee Crushnathjee" has farther to say, and then I will try to enlighten the public further on this matter.

JOHN BULL.

THE ROOT OF OUR EDUCATIONAL DEFECTS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—Many of your correspondents have referred to the defective nature of the education received by our students, and have called for such reform as would enable the latter to write English correctly after matriculation. I believe no one has pointed out where the evil of the present system is, and how it is to be cured. I think the evil lies in the school curriculum much more than in the University, though public attention is generally confined to the latter.

The shortcomings laid to the door of the present race of students were not found in those of the past, and why? Because the school course of the latter was more "rational" than that which now obtains. In the old days the boys had a good grounding in their vernacular, and even learned well some of the elementary subjects through that language before they were admitted to the English forms. The schoolbooks of those days, too, both in English and vernacular, though few, were better suited for the purpose than the present. The result was that the reasoning and comprehending faculties of the boys were better developed than they now are, and consequently they learned English better and wrote better in that and also in their own vernacular language than is now found to be the case. All this is now altered, and urchins who have very little knowledge of their mother tongue are prematurely pressed through difficult English books, and the other subjects too, such as geography, are taught in the latter language at a rate which, with a classical tongue in addition, tends to confuse and bewilder the minds, and cramming has to be used to get through examinations. Hence the complaint of imperfect knowledge of professors making is common with the general public.

This is the root of the evil, and nothing short of thorough inquiry by a competent commission can suffice to bring it out or to suggest suitable remedies. I would suggest the energetic acting Director of Public Instruction to propose such an inquiry and overhaul the whole subject at once.

PATERFAMILIAS.

SAILOR JACK.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—I would wish to call attention, through your columns, to a few of Jack's troubles. His rations as set forth by the Board of Trade are ample, but are not well regulated,—for instance, he receives exactly the same allowance in the tropics, where he often works all day, exposed to a fierce sun—that he does when engaged in rounding the "Horn" in freezing weather. The cook who has to prepare his food is often an ex-stoker or fireman, and, as may be imagined, often does more harm than good to the food. The provisions such as tea and coffee are often of the very worst kind. Salt beef and fat pork, although they may be digested in cold weather "off the Cape," are not conducive to health in the tropics. I would suggest that when in hot latitudes he should receive more flour and light diet than when in cold places. Pre-time also of the "move on" English merchantmen arise through bad food and worse cooking. When Jack is in port after a long sea passage, he naturally requires a little of his hard-earned wages. This he generally has to accept at the rate of two shillings and sixpence to the rupee. If he wants a few clothes out of the "slop chest" he is charged cent. per cent. on the prime cost, and ten to one is then supplied with rubbish. Of course it will be asserted he should join his ship amply supplied with clothes, but those who know him will readily excuse this shortcoming. As a rule Jack is a hard-working, much-abused, quaint fellow—and a plucky fellow also—and in the face of the present political crisis he should be taken course of and encouraged, instead of being treated, as he invariably is, more as an animal than a man. In the event of a long European war our navy would have to be recruited from the merchant service; therefore our merchant sailors should receive fair play and better treatment.

BOMBAY MUNICIPAL CORPORATION.

A MEETING of the Municipal Corporation was held on Monday afternoon, Mr. Pherozshaw M. Mehta presiding. There were also present:—Lieutenant-Colonel Merewether, Sir Frank Souter, Drs. H. B. Cook, Thomas Blaney, Roland Blaney, Cowasjee Hormusjee, R. N. Khory, Messrs. D. S. Kemp, D. Gostling, Damoder T. Muljee, Dosabhoy Framjee, Gokuldas Jugmohundas, Hormusjee Dadabhoy, Jamshedjee Pallonjee Kapadia, Kaikhusro Nowrojee Kabrajee, Karsandas Vallabdas, Kharshedjee Nusserwanjee Serval, Mirza Husan Khan, Muncherjee Nowrojee Banajee, Nowrozjee Furdoonjee, Raghunath Narayen Khote, Shantaram Narayen, Shivjee Dhurmajee, Tribhowandas Munguldas Nuthoobhoy, Tribhowandas Vurjeewandas, and Vandrawandas Purshotumdas.

EXTENSION OF LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT.

The Corporation considered the report of the committee appointed on the 5th February last, on the subject of the extension of local self-government. The report, as well as a letter addressed by the Bombay Medical Union, in connection with the management of the Goculdas Tejpal Hospital, has already appeared in these columns. The letter stated that should Government resolve to give over the entire control of the hospital to the Municipality, the medical officers might be appointed from the ranks of the local practitioners.

Dr. Blaney moved the adoption of the committee's report. He said that the adjustment proposed unanimously by the committee was quite fair and equitable. As to the Goculdas Hospital, the committee were also unanimous in the opinion that the present method of the Corporation contributing a large sum of money towards its expenditure, without having any voice in the control and management of the institution, was not very fair or satisfactory. It was proposed that either the Municipality should be allowed to exercise the control of the hospital, or if Government wished to manage the institution themselves, they should also pay entirely for its maintenance.

Mr. Gokuldas Jugmohundas seconded the proposition.

Colonel Merewether said there were two or three proposals in the report with which he was sorry to say he could not agree. He did not think it had at all been shown clearly that the Municipality should be relieved of the cost of the maintenance of the police. He submitted that there were strong reasons why the cost should be borne by the Municipality. With regard to the Goculdas Hospital, the proposal of the committee to be allowed to take over the entire charge of the hospital would involve a considerable increase of expenditure. He did not think the Corporation could maintain the hospital in a greater state of efficiency than the Government, and therefore the extra cost, some Rs. 18,000, which would be entailed by the transfer would secure to the Municipality nothing more substantial than the mere honour and glory of exercising a control over the hospital.

Dr. R. N. Khory said that the transfer of the control of the hospital from the Government to the Municipality would not, he thought, involve a very considerable extra expenditure. The money now spent by Government in paying the salary of one head medical officer might go to support nearly a dozen of the local medical practitioners. Nor would the hospital suffer in any respect on the score of efficiency if the management were transferred to the Municipality. The speaker concluded with the hope that the Corporation would see the advisability of according to Government the letter addressed by the Medical Union, along with the committee's report.

Dr. Cowasjee Hormusjee proposed as a rider to Dr. Blaney's motion that the Chairman be requested to reply to Government in accordance with the terms of the report, and to refer, with regard to the suggestions made by the committee on the subject of the Goculdas Hospital, to the letter of the Bombay Medical Union. He thought the letter would go to strengthen the views of the committee with regard to the hospital.

Mr. Hormusjee Dadabhoy said that there was available talent among the independent medical practitioners of the city to be able to manage a hospital quite satisfactorily.

Mr. Nowrozjee Furdoonjee contended that the Municipality were quite able to manage the hospital as well as the Government, and he demurred to the principle of the Municipality having to pay towards the maintenance of an institution in the management of which they had no voice.

After some further discussion, Dr. Blaney agreed to accept the rider, and his motion, coupled with the rider, having been put to the vote was carried, Colonel Merewether being the only dissentient.

TRADE ACCOMMODATION OF THE CITY.

Dr. Blaney, in accordance with a notice given by him, moved "That in view of the increased and increasing traffic in the trade districts of the city, and the insufficiency of the road accommodation for that traffic, it is desirable to provide increased accommodation. The Corporation are therefore of opinion that such increased street accommodation should be provided as early as possible, and inasmuch as this can only be efficiently secured by a special loan raised for the purpose, that the Municipal Commissioner be requested to submit a first portion of a scheme for giving relief to the traffic in one or more of the principal streets in which it is now obstructed and delayed, so as to avoid, if they had a revenue map they would find that the revenues of the city were chiefly derived from the east of Kalbadevi-road. Endeavours had been made by the Corporation to increase the accommodation of the city by special grants from current revenue, but the trade portions of the district had received no consideration at all by the application of this policy. To provide for the expenditure required for carrying through an efficient scheme out of the current revenue would be doing an injustice to the house-owners. The roads having been made 200 years ago were utterly inadequate for the requirements of the trade and traffic of the present day. The speaker urged that all the expenditure in regard to road improvements should be provided for out of a loan, so that the expenditure might be shared in by the coming as well as the present generation. There were districts in the city which, Dr. Blaney said, they dared not show to any member of the Royal Family or any other eminent visitors like Lord Randolph Churchill.

Dr. Cowajee.—They like our roads very much.

Dr. Blaney continued that the districts to which he referred were left unseen by the distinguished visitors who came here. As a matter of fact, very few Europeans knew anything about Mandvi. The speaker asked the Corporation to consider the consequences of a fire in a street like the Old Hanuman-lane, where two or three millions sterling worth of piece-goods was usually stored in the shops and godowns.

Mr. Damodar Thakersey Muljee seconded the proposition.

Mr. Nowrozjee Furdoonjee said it was all very well to improve the communications in the trade centres of the city, but the Corporation should first calculate the enormous cost which Dr. Blaney's proposal would involve. (Hear, hear.) They had resolved to borrow about a crore of rupees for their water-supply, and another quarter or half-a-crore would, perhaps, have to be added before the scheme was completed. Seeing that their liabilities were already very heavy, Mr. Nowrojee put it to the meeting whether it was judicious or advisable in the interest of the rate-payers to go on adding to their burdens?

Mr. D. S. Kemp supported Dr. Blaney's motion, observing that the scheme could be best carried out by raising a loan for the purpose.

Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee thought they were almost all agreed with regard to the facilities that were required for the increasing traffic of the city. But they must go step by step. They had already to pay loans to the extent of 140 lakhs, and had moreover sanctioned the raising of a loan of 44 lakhs for drainage and other works. Then they had in the immediate distance a loan of a crore of rupees for the Tansa water-works, which had been proposed by Dr. Blaney himself. The grand total would thus reach 284 lakhs of rupees. If they went on raising loans for this and that purpose, he did not know where they would launch themselves. The Municipal Commissioner was giving a great deal of attention to the widening of roads—(hear, hear)—and the speaker thought the matter might well be left to his discretion.

Dr. Cowajee Hormusjee opposed Dr. Blaney's proposition, which he feared might involve an enormous expenditure.

Sir Frank Souter said that he entirely sympathized with Dr. Blaney in his desire to open up the trade districts. Dr. Blaney must be mistaken in supposing that men of mark who visited Bombay never went over the districts mentioned by him. He (Sir Frank Souter) had himself had the pleasure of taking some of their distinguished visitors round the crowded parts of the town. As had been already pointed out, the Corporation had sanctioned large sums for their water-supply and other important sanitary works, which could not be subordinated to a scheme for affording increased accommodation to the traffic of the districts. The only course they could at present pursue was that which Mr. Dillwyn had been following ever since he had assumed charge of his office, which was to strictly enforce set-backs wherever they were found desirable.

The Municipal Commissioner began by observing that the question was so important that he wished he could speak better upon it than he was likely to do on the spur of the moment. He felt the difficulty all the more on the present occasion, because he did not think he could agree entirely with any of the speakers. As he had stated on a previous occasion, the first object of expenditure in this city must be sanitary works, in which he would include the widening of roads and the making of new ones. He then read to the meeting the following extracts from his last report bearing on the question:—"The Commissioner of Police states that 488 persons were run over in the public streets, of whom 57 were killed during the year 1883, the largest number yet reported. One of the most fatal streets (perhaps the most fatal in proportion to its length) was the one leading from Mombadevi Tank to Mandvi-bunder Bridge. This is a street with no pre-eminent claims on expenditure for street improvement." "The steady application of the 'set-back' provisions of the Municipal Act has undoubtedly produced good results, and better results will follow if the amendments now under consideration are adopted. Nevertheless, this progress of street improvement can at the best be but a gradual one, and being carried out piecemeal it is much open to the charge of doing towards the future. There are, however, some quarters of the city, notably the Mandvi district, where more immediate and comprehensive measures of street improvement might be carried out with advantage. For such action as is here contemplated special legislation would probably be required, and a leading feature of the scheme should be the right to acquire not only land actually required, but such contingages on the road as would derive an enhanced value from the work undertaken." The Commissioner proceeded to say that he had before him a tabular statement of the sums spent on set-backs during the last four years, and he was glad to see that, as far as possible, whenever an opportunity arose, it was turned to account, without any distinction of localities. In A ward (Fort) the sum spent was Rs. 12,000, in B ward (Mandvi) Rs. 40,000, in C ward (Bholeshwar), which was to the east of Kalbadevi, Rs. 50,000—(hear, hear)—in D ward (Girgaum and Walkeshwar) Rs. 42,000, E (Byculla) Rs. 9,000, and F and G wards (Mahim, Sion, Parel, and Worli) Rs. 2,500. The question was surrounded by considerable practical difficulties. If he were asked to provide a comprehensive scheme, he ought to devote his very best time and attention to it, leaving all the rest of his work for two or three months to a deputy. If the Corporation wished to undertake improvements on a large scale, the only economical way to affect them would be to have a special Act for the purpose; and what course such an Act should take ought to be made the subject of careful consideration by a committee of the Corporation. If the Corporation wished to put the question within the bounds of possibility, they should, in the first place, draft some such Act. They would then be able to see whether the scheme was practicable or not. For his part, he did not believe in the bugbear of great financial difficulties. There would be a great expenditure, no doubt, but if the proposal were carried out in the proper way, that is, by special legislation, framed with special care, they would benefit by it. They should carry out their road improvements in Bombay in the way which was successfully adopted in Paris, where they were not only able to take the land required for providing the roads, but also more for the houses fronting them. Such a course would be found to be more economical and satisfactory than the system of spending so many thousands every year for enforcing setbacks. Every member of the Corporation must be alive to the importance of this question. With regard to the financial aspect of the case, the Commissioner said that he should be sorry to see the proposal of Dr. Blaney shelved by the Corporation. He should, at the same time, be sorry to lead them to any hasty action. If they were at all prepared to take up the scheme, it should be only after careful consideration of the lines that the legislation on the subject should take.

Mr. Hormusjee Dadabhoy said the scheme had no doubt been proposed from benevolent motives, but Dr. Blaney had shown no stern necessity for carrying it out at once. Dr. Blaney had recently got a crore of rupees for his favourite Tansa scheme, and he should certainly rest content with it for some ten years more. (Laughter.)

Dr. Blaney, in his reply on the debate, said that every one of the principal speakers had admitted that increased trade accommodation in the city was absolutely necessary. His resolution was a very moderate one, only asking that a beginning should be made, however small it might be, in this direction. Members objected to the raising of a loan for the purpose of improving the communications, but the Municipality should be allowed to exercise the control of the hospital, or if Government wished to manage the institution themselves, they should also pay entirely for its maintenance.

Mr. Goculdas Jugmohundas seconded the proposition.

Colonel Merewether said there were two or three proposals in the report with which he was sorry to say he could not agree. He did not think it had at all been shown clearly that the Municipality should be relieved of the cost of the maintenance of the police.
